

JBG's Long-Range Plans

The JBG Companies owns and manages six apartment communities in Alexandria's West End called The Apartments at Mark Center. These communities are Brookdale, Hillwood, Stoneridge, Lynbrook, Meadow Creek and Willow Run. JBG also owns the shopping center on North Beauregard Street that is anchored by Global Foods, Starbucks and CVS Pharmacy.

JBG is a recognized leader in the Washington real estate market, known for thoughtful and innovative work on complex, mixed-use developments. This commitment to world class planning is evident by its inclusion of two world-renowned planning firms, Duany Plater-Zyberk & Company and Dover Kohl on the project team. JBG maintains high standards in design and development, welcomes collaboration with the City and community, and recognizes its vital role in improving communities by delivering best in class product.

In coming years, JBG intends to create a walkable community that includes shops, grocery, restaurants and more – while offering a diverse range of housing options, including dedicated affordable housing, which does not exist today. This redevelopment will be phased in over a 30-year period, with construction beginning on the first phase no sooner than mid-2018. JBG looks forward to continuing its work with the community as it moves forward with its first phase of development at Mark Center.
